

Bowman High School

October 30, 2009

Halloween Awards Assembly

On Friday, October 30th, Bowman students and families celebrated student achievement during a special Awards Assembly where over 100 students were recognized in the following categories:

- Perfect Attendance
- Top Credit Earners
- Students of the Month
- Heroes of the Week
- Excellence in Art
- Promoting School Unity
- Math Madness Award
- Excellence in Reading
- Outstanding Essays
- Excellence in Physical Education
- Most Improved Musician
- Most Improved Citizenship
- Parent and Community Awards

Special Awards were presented to Ryan Sanchez for winning a $250.00 SARB Scholarship Award, presented by Welfare and Attendance Specialists Mary Chester and Teresa Kasparian, and to Richard Sanchez, who won the Lockheed Credit Union's Student of the Month Scholarship for $250.00, presented by Ms. Alethia Calagius.

At the conclusion of the Awards Assemblies, held both in the morning and afternoon for Bowman students, teacher Mike Mansfield lead students in a rousing rendition of the famous Michael Jackson video dance from "Thriller."

